Qualcomm Incorporated (Nasdaq: QCOM)
Rescheduled Time and Date for
Second Quarter Fiscal 2009 Earnings Release and Conference Call

April 22, 2009

Qualcomm has rescheduled its second quarter earnings call to Monday, April 27, 2009 at 5:00 a.m. PT.

The Company is postponing its earnings release and call until Monday, April 27, 2009 due to advanced settlement discussions with Broadcom regarding a global settlement of all disputes between the parties which if reached, would have an impact on the Company's financial results for the fiscal second quarter. No assurance can be given that the Company and Broadcom will be able to reach agreement on the terms of a global settlement. Neither company will comment further at this time.

Revenue and operating income for the second quarter of fiscal 2009, excluding the potential impact of the Broadcom agreement, met or exceeded prior guidance. Further details on the Company's second fiscal quarter results and full fiscal year guidance will be provided in the earnings release and conference call.

Except for the impact of this agreement, the Company had completed all of its period ending accounting processes and procedures necessary to report its second fiscal quarter results.

Qualcomm remains in its quiet period and Qualcomm Investor Relations representatives will not be available to return phone calls until after the conclusion of the conference call. Questions during the live call will be taken from investment professionals only.
